

Lakie House

Our house is situated in a cozy little Kashubian village Łąkie, right next to a lake, one of many that can be found in the vicinity, as well as many well kept paths throughout the nearby forests, where one can get lost for hours on end walking or cycling. It is accessible by car - 25 minutes from Bytów, 1h20 minutes from Ustka by the sea, 2h from Gdańsk and 5h from Warsaw.

The main building is used as our home, a recording studio and a little retreat center for occasional workshops that stem from our passion for music and holistic education.

The guest house is situated on the same premises and has a little private garden, together with garden furniture and a grill. It can house 6 people. Here you can rest, go for walks or bicycle trips, have a swim or take our little rowing boat for a spin of the oars. Great canoeing trips are accessible within a 40-60min ride car and there a many other tourist attractions, all within an easy reach.

As you enter on the ground floor, you will find a cozy kitchen, fully equipped for those lovely summer meals with family and friends. Nearby farms will provide ample local food such as bread, dairy products, eggs, poultry and fish. There is plenty of options for vegetarians and vegans as well.

The grill outside will provide many a lovely sunset clad evenings for all to share and enjoy. You can also make use of the bonfire by the lake. A sure way to pass a great moment and bid farewell to a well spent day.

The stairs on the side of the kitchen will take you up to the warm living room, which has a convertible sofa and a single bed, and where you also have access to the bathroom.

There are no TV sets but there is wifi available. It's up to you if you spend this time here in nature or in front of Netflix :). There is plenty out there to make this stay either very relaxing or very active!

The snug little bedroom also has a double and a single bed, as well as a wardrobe. After a good night's sleep it's time to welcome a glorious new day!

In the morning you'll be woken up either by the cock, the geese or the nearby church's soft trumpet tunes. After a relaxing breakfast you can decide to either get lost in the never ending forest all around, take a dip in the very pure lake, play some volleyball on the beach, spend some quality time boating or fishing, and if that isn't enough, go kayaking or visit one of the many tourist attractions in the region.

Kayaking and Canoeing

The region of Pojezierza Południowobałtyckie (Southern Baltic Lakes) covers the area of 77 thousand sq km, which constitutes 25 percent of Poland's territory. The landscape of the region is dominated by hills, cut through by valleys and numerous rivers. A number of big rivers, which flow straight to the Baltic Sea, have their source in the region (Rega, Parsęta, Wieprza, Słupia, Łupawa, Leba). Another characteristic feature of Pojezierza Południowobałtyckie is the multitude of postglacial lakes, the biggest among them are: Jeziorak, Gopło, Koronowskie, Wdzydze, Charzykowskie.

Greater part of this region is covered by forests. The Lakeland District has also a considerable number of protected areas, which preserve the relatively unchanged and most valuable areas.

The region of the Southern Baltic Lakeland District is divided into 12 macroregions, mostly Lakeland Districts: West Pomeranian, East Pomeranian, South Pomeranian, Iława, Chelminsko-Dobrzyński, Wielkopolsko-Kujawski, Lubuski and Leszczyński. Remaining regions are: the Valley of the Lower Vistula River, Pradolina Torunsko-Eberswaldzka, Pradolina Warciansko-Odrzańska and Wzniesienia Zielonogorskie.
